Enfield Community Federal Credit Union Announces Scholarship Recipient

Enfield, CT – June 9, 2010 – The Enfield Community Federal Credit Union (ECFCU) is pleased to announce the recipient of their 2010 Scholarship Award of $500. Congratulations to Nicholas Jefson a graduate of the Pioneer Valley Christian School in Springfield, Massachusetts. He will be continuing his education at Anderson University in South Carolina where he will major in Music and English.

The purpose of this scholarship is to recognize credit union members who have shown scholastic achievement and are pursuing higher education. Applicants must have been graduating seniors who would be attending a 2-4 year institution of higher learning in the fall of 2010.

“We are pleased to be able to offer this scholarship award to one of our young members. All of us at the credit union wish Nicholas the best of luck now and in his future endeavors”, said Kathleen Gleason, President and CEO of the Enfield Community Federal Credit Union.

For more information about applying for the 2011 Scholarship Award visit the credit union’s web site: www.enfieldcommunityfcu.org, call them at 860-253-5100 or stop by their office which is located at 11 Cranbrook Boulevard in Enfield.

The Enfield Community Federal Credit Union has been serving members in the Enfield community for 70 years. As a not-for-profit financial cooperative, the ECFCU offers a full range of financial services including savings/checking accounts, child and teen accounts, 24 hour banking, online services, loans and more. Membership is available to anyone who lives or works in Enfield, and their families. The ECFCU also partners with Enfield companies to offer their employees all the benefits of a credit union membership.
