

Strength In Members

Enfield Community Federal Credit Union presented with Literacy Award

Enfield, CT – January 19, 2009 –

The Enfield Community Federal Credit Union (ECFCU) was recently presented with an award from the Literacy Volunteers of America of Northern Connecticut (LVANC). The award, “Friend of the Literacy Volunteers” was given to ECFCU in recognition of the support that they have given to this valuable program through their participation in the LVANC Annual Scrabble Challenge fundraiser.

The Literacy Volunteers is a non-profit educational organization that trains and certifies tutors to provide learner-oriented instruction in Basic Literacy and English for speakers of other languages. They also provide free tutoring for adults who want to improve their reading and writing skills.

" The Literacy Volunteers is a wonderful program. Literacy is a vital part of one’s personal achievements. The volunteers provide exceptional services to those working to better their communication skills. We are proud to support their efforts and honored to receive this award," said Kathleen Gleason, President and CEO of the ECFCU.

For more information about ECFCU please call 860-253-5100 or visit their web site at www.enfieldcommunityfcu.org. For more information about the Literacy Volunteers of America of Northern Connecticut please call 860-253-3038.

The Enfield Community Federal Credit Union has been serving members in the Enfield community for 70 years. As a not-for-profit financial cooperative, the ECFCU offers a full range of financial services including savings/checking accounts, teen/kid accounts, home banking, online services, loans and more. Membership is available to anyone who lives or works in Enfield, and their families. The ECFCU also partners with Enfield companies to offer their employees all the benefits of a credit union membership.